

LITURGY ALIVE!

The University of Notre Dame Liturgical Composition Commission Competition 2027

The University of Notre Dame is pleased to announce Liturgy Alive!, a composition competition to foster creative new choral music for the Catholic Mass. In an effort to encourage composers to write music for the Church, the Notre Dame Magnificat Choir will be awarding prizes for winning sacred choral compositions. In addition, the winning composition will be premiered at the Basilica in 2027.

The winning entry will receive a monetary prize of $3,500.

Entry deadline is 11:59 p.m. EST on January 3, 2027.

The winner will be announced by February 3, 2027.

For official contest rules and details, visit basilica.nd.edu/music/liturgy-alive.

